EDUCATION SERIES

$35 PP | WORKSHOP AND TASTING

Join certified Tea Specialist Angela Strach-Gotthardt and the Secret Tea Society team for a fun and informative journey into the taste and nuance of tea. It's a culture that has brought the world's most widely consumed beverage to the fore once more. These professional tea tastings will bring your appreciation to the next level and give you the confidence to experiment on your own. Each class stands on its own or you may hone your tastebuds by reserving a spot for the whole the series. We hope to share a cup of tea with you!
