

Tea & CONVERSATION

$15 PP | includes tea, treat and topic

Creating a space for sharing tea and conversation was popularized in 17th century France and continued through the 1940s, mostly in Europe and, to a lesser degree, in quickly-changing America. These spaces, known as salons, were places for interested people to share and contemplate new ideas.

The tea salon lifestyle is making a comeback and we're happy to announce Secret Tea Society, leader of the contemporary tea salon movement in America, will be joining the Peter Allen Inn to host our tea salons!

Please join us, once a month, as Angela Strach-Gotthardt, certified Tea Specialist and founder of STS, leads us as we enjoy carefully curated teas and share in stimulating conversation. It's one and a half hours of pure, thoughtful luxury for your palate and your sensibilities.

Visit us at peteralleninn.com/tea-party/ to make your reservation.
